The Seven Hybrids (Reboot)

dancingphoenix151

Pyrrhia is a mess. Wars are popping up all over Pyrrhia and the seven queens have lost control of their tribes. When new dragons from the tribes start claiming that they're the new queen of their tribe, the real queens are forced into hiding. The false queens have allied up, starting what is called the War of False Queens, the first continent-wide war since the War of SandWing Succession. Pyrrhia is lost in complete chaos.

But one day, everything changes when a NightWing deliveres a prophecy.

To end the war and start the peace,
These damaged dragons' fear must cease:

The first is hatched of sky and night,
Their mind is sharp and eyes are bright.

A second born of marsh and sea,
They have obscured their memory.

Where ice and sand combine to one,
A third has life that's far from done.

Rain will meet with night and hide,
A fourth that's far from what has died.

A fifth is formed of night and snow,
Hiding where the harsh winds blow.

Hatched of sand and hatched of sky,
A sixth has scales that burn and fry.

A seventh born of leaf and hive,
Has travelled far for what they strive.

Together they can end this fight,
Together they can fix their sight,
Help them see what's really there,
Help them see what's true and fair.

Callisto of the StarWings

The Seven Hybrids (Reboot)

dawnhaze118

~Name: Grasshopper. ~Age: 3. ~Tribe: HiveWing/SilkWing. ~Gender: male. ~Apearance: he has the overall build of a LeafWing, but with HiveWing wings and a poisonous sting on his tail. He is mostly a light brown-green color, with black underscales and golden honey-colored eyes. ~Personality: he is a free spirit; doesn't like being ordered around, loves adventuring, and is quite creative. He can be stubborn, and is rude to most. ~Backstory: he was raised by LeafWings, which is where he got his name. His parents were killed by the HiveWings because of their illegal relationship. At a young age, he was told by a visiting NightWing prophet that he needed to travel to Pyrrhia. ~Powers: he can control plants, has a paralyzing stinger on his tail, and is surprisingly nimble for his age and size. ~Other: cranberries. _____ ~Name: Lilypad. ~Age: 7. ~Tribe: MudWing/SeaWing. ~Gender: female. ~Apearance: she has the overall build and appearance of a MudWing, but a bit more petite. She is mostly a warm, earthy brown, with dark green underscales and sky-blue wing membranes. She has amber eyes, and those little SeaWing chin things. ~Personality: she is upbeat, and very optimistic; always cheering others up and refusing to see the negative side of things unless absolutely necessary. She is active and friendly, which means it's easy for her to make and keep friends, especially because of her loyalty. She's pretty dumb and often clumsy, and is very naïve. ~Backstory: she lived in Possibility for a few years, helping her mother and father run a small seafood restaurant. When they found out about her powers, they decided to close the shop for fear that someone would find out and try to abuse her powers. But Lilypad was careless, and told her friends that she was an animus. They in turn told their parents, and word spread enough that soon a SandWing mob-boss in residence there found out and paid her family a visit. Newly orphaned, young Lilypad decided to run from her problems. She realized there was a problem with this two days into it; she had been spoiled most of her life, and didn't know how to fight or hunt well. After a week or two she gave up, and went back to Possibility. She came to an orphanage, and word spread that the animus was back in town. The same mob boss from earlier (he deserves a name so I guess it'll be Pronghorn) came to the orphanage and 'adopted' Lilypad. She was too petrified to scream for help. He took her to his home, and gave her one night to make him a perfectly worded earring that would make him an animus. She was crying for hours, but then she thought up an escape. She would enchanted herself to forget all about her troubles; all about her life. She would be an entirely new dragon... And she could include transportation in the spell. She used the earring he had given her to enchant for him (a big gold loop with a diamond at the bottom), and then Lilypad fell asleep. She woke in a valley near the mountains, and didn't remember anything but a name; Pronghorn. She figured that must be her name, so she stuck with it. She now goes by Prong, and as part of the spell she is good at hunting and fighting and all things survival. She is exploring the continent, trying to find her lost memories... ~Powers: animus, can breathe fire if warm enough. ~Other: tomato.

Wait, but that means they'd be over 20 in human years. Or do you mean that's in human years? If so, then Lilypad already qualifies. 7 dragon years=14 human years. I'll change Grasshopper to 6 in dragon years, making him 13. Also, why the sudden change in age requirements? The last rp didn't have any.

I may be wrong but I don't think that's how that works. Dragons don't actually live to be that old, the oldest being like 150. Some humans can get to nearly 120 if they're lucky. You're suggesting it doubles, which it doesn't. And I also asked you to make an EXTREMELY simple adjustment and you're downright refusing, which is VERY annoying. Please just follow the rules like everyone else and STOP ARGUING WITH ME.

(incoming post) when I say 12.5, to be fair I thought I had memorized the chart, and 13 isn't very different from it... There's just .5 in difference. So he'll almost be 7, which is the equivalent of 13 human years.

Yeesh! I really didn't mean to receive all-caps, all I wa trying to do was do what you asked! Lilypad is 7 in dragon years, which, according to a chart I found that has scientific backup, means she is 14 in human years. Grasshopper's age was changed to 6 in dragon years, which is about 12.5 in human years. I will copy/paste the chart on here if you want me to, I'm just saying that I already fulfilled your requirements. I am not downright refusing; I did change Grasshopper's age. I had just said that his new age was about 13 in human years, and apparently that deems a mini-flame war.

kiddo, you're being really unreasonable and rude.

Sorrel is being as polite as possible.

although -- Tui confirmed that 5 dragon years = 13 human years. i don't know where, but i'm pretty sure she did.

therefore, 1 dragon year = 2.6 human years.

it's not complicated. anyone in fourth grade, maybe even younger, can go through the math to complete the equation with ease. i certainly can.

I don't think Callisto left because of you guys, though you probably didn't help. If you look at some of her other posts, she's not a very organized person. She might just be busy. But Sorrel you were being kind of stubborn when all she asked you to do was change a few numbers. If you were confused, you could have asked for a clarification instead of lashing out like that. I haven't been a part of these forums for very long, but I've been here long enough to kind of get to know Callisto and i know she's kind of a mess. Give her some time, she'll probably come back eventually.
